Assembly Democrats Call For Real Conversation About California Values and Budget

VIEW VIDEO

(Sacramento) - Assembly Democrats responded to the Governor's State of the State address by acknowledging the major challenges facing the state. They called on the Governor, Legislative Republicans and all Californians to have a "real conversation" about the need to address California's multi-billion dollar deficit with more than just another round of program cuts. Assemblymember Anthony Portantino talked about the possible impact of the Governor's across the board cuts to his district.
